

WARREN COUNTY PREVENTION PARTNERSHIP

Winter 2001

Warren County Sheriff's Department

Volume 5 Issue 3

"CRIMEFIGHTER CORVETTE" JUDGED THE BEST IN THE WORLD

The WCPP's "CrimeFighter Corvette" was named the "Best of Show" at the International DARE Conference in the Los Angeles Convention Center this past August. Over 2,000 DARE Officers voted for our Corvette over vehicles from the USA and other countries.

Young L.A. DARE graduate Donte Barnes, a long time friend of Captain Jakub checks out the Corvette and it met with his approval. As a matter of fact Donte is seriously considering becoming a DARE Of-

Pictured Above is Sheriff John Stone of Jefferson County, Colorado and members of his department. Captain Jakub spent "National Night Out" with Sheriff Stone on the grounds of the tragic site of Columbine High School. Jakub said "It was a very

ADVISORY COUNCIL MEMBER INDUCTED INTO "National Corvette Mu-

Pictured above is the National Sheriff's Association Past President & Warren County Sheriff, Jerry "Peanuts" Gaines congratulating General Motors Vice President and WCPP Advisory Council member, Joe Spielman on being inducted into the National Corvette Museum Hall of Fame. The Warren County Prevention Partnership (WCPP) extends it's sincere congratulations to Joe "Mr. Corvette" Spielman for his induction into the prestigious National Corvette Museum's Hall of Fame. Sheriff Gaines deputized "Mr. Corvette" and forced him to patrol all weekend in the "CrimeFighter Corvette". Deputy Spielman did an awesome job on patrol pulling over all kinds of violators and the Sheriffs Dept. did receive several calls on the Sher-

PROJECT NOAH PROVIDES WARREN COUNTY DARE'S NEW MASCOT ...

Judah DAREN is a one year old, real, male African lion, who represents the courage needed to say no to drugs. He attends the Warren County DARE Graduations and is a big hit with graduates. Director, well has been a supporter of Warren County DARE for several years. DAREN's mom, Sheba was the original mascot for

"CRIMEFIGHTER CORVETTE" & US AIR FORCE THUNDERBIRDS TEAM

COUNTRY MUSIC STAR RONNIE MILSAP SAYS THE CRIMEFIGHTER COR-

Ronnie Milsap recently had the opportunity to get behind the wheel of the "CrimeFighter Corvette" and he was thrilled. Although Ronnie is blind he realizes the impact of the Corvette in drug prevention programs like DARE and Reach for your Dreams. He did a short video telling the kids about the hard- that he over- being a and them to Captain mes- Ronnie about the kids just like we do and wanted to help us in our fight against drugs and violence. In the video Ronnie said "Success doesn't always come easy, but if you stay focused on your dream and away from drugs you will Reach your Dreams". What a great example of someone who beat the odds and reached their dreams. Ronnie has over 40 number one country hits to date and is currently touring the USA entertaining his fans. The Warren County Prevention Partnership thanks Ronnie for the video and more

The "CrimeFighter Corvette" and its pilot Captain Joe Jakob were guests of the world famous U. S. Air Force "Thunderbirds" this past August. The "CrimeFighter Corvette" was on display next to Air Force Thunderbird #1 for this scouting event at Nellis AFB, Nevada. Thunderbird Team member Sgt.. Brian Bahret, and Capt. Joe shared drug & violence prevention messages with the kids along with showing off the F-16 and Corvette. What a fantastic tribute and honor for our Partnership Team to be recognized by the Air Force "Thunderbird's" for our prevention efforts. The Partnership wishes all our friends on the Thunderbird Team God Speed in their efforts to

"RACE TO BEAT DRUGS" PROGRAM

The "Race to Beat Drugs" program has become one of our major Partnership success stories. It's just not successful for our students, but the Parents as well. Pictured is Alvaton DARE the Week, who won recently "Race to Standing is Mr. Jeff Wink, father of Tara Wink of Bristow Elementary and also the winner of the Feature Race that night in our "Parents Race to Beat Drugs". The look on their

*Comments or submissions should be directed to:
Mr. Michael Doro, Newsletter Managing Editor & Webmaster
P.O. Box 1013 Bowling Green, KY 42102*