

WARREN COUNTY PREVENTION PARTNERSHIP

Summer 2003

Warren County Kentucky Sheriff's Department

Volume 7 Issue 2

“CRIMEFIGHTER CORVETTE” INTERNATIONAL FAVORITE

Mr. Bill (Retro Bill) Russ, Chief Executive Officer for Russ Productions from California was the Master of Ceremonies at the International DARE Officers conference in Atlantic City, New Jersey and the celebrity to announce that our WCPP “CrimeFighter Corvette” was selected as the “2003 D A R E the Year”. Bill put this is the Corvette on a International level and that really is super cool. Special thanks to over 2,000 DARE Officers who voted the “CrimeFighter Corvette” the best DARE tool in the World. Our CrimeFighter took a similar honor in 2001 in the Los Angeles California Convention Center. Special Thanks to GM and all our Prevention Partners plus Captain Joe for their hard work in creating the most unique working Law Enforcement Corvette in the World. If you

CRIMEFIGHTER WELCOMES GM CHAIRMAN/CEO & VICE PRESIDENT

General Motors Corporate CEO & Chairman, Rick Wagoner, and GM Vice President, Joe Spielman, both from Michigan admire the “CrimeFighter Corvette” at the Bowling Green Airport. Both executives pictured with Sheriff Jerry “Peanuts” Gaines below offer their sincere congratulations for the fine job the CrimeFighter Project is doing with drug prevention not only in Warren County, but USA. Motors Spielman is on the cause he is founding Partnership Advisory Council members. He is one of a select few who insures this program is moving in the right direction. Sheriff Gaines and his deputies provided an escort to the executives while they were in Warren County. Special thanks to General Motors for their continued commitment to the

“MADE IN AMERICA” T.V. SPECIAL WITH COUNTRY STAR AARON TIPPIN

The “CrimeFighter Corvette” & Capt. Joe made a national T.V. appearance last month with Country Music Star, Aaron Tippin (pictured right). They did the opening for the television show called “Made in America” which aired on the GAC channel. of America than the down it’s side. This show fo- produced in its own assembly show centered around the assem- Plant Manager and Advisory build the greatest products in the work ethic used in the Bowling Green Plant, and Corvette is the finest vehicle built anywhere in the world. Mr. Tippin also filmed a special drug prevention video for Captain Joe to use in his “Reach for your Dreams”

WCPP is raising program funds with the offering of Minnesota Artist, Rick Kelley's limited edition “Freedom Series” prints. Check our Website for details

 * ALWAYS “REACH FOR YOUR DREAMS” * CHECK OUT OUR PARTNERSHIP WEBSITE WCDARE.COM *

PIP PRINTING IS PROUD TO BE A WARREN COUNTY PREVENTION PARTNER PIP PRINTING, 1755 SCOTTSVILLE ROAD, BOWLING GREEN, KY (270) 842-1635

‘CRIMEFIGHTER CORVETTE ‘ FEATURED AT CARLISLE

Carlisle Productions requested the presence of the “Crimefighter Corvette” at its premier event this August called “Corvettes at Carlisle”. Approximately 60,000 Corvette enthusiasts and over 2500 show cars were on display at this prestigious event. General Motors was well represented with several engineering dignitaries including Dave Hill, Corvette’s neer, plus vette Plants

Manager,
sey. Pic-
is Mr. Chip CEO of Productions

CrimeFighter into a place of featured distinction. It was on display with Mr. Millers awesome collection of Corvettes and placed right next to the priceless EX-122 Corvette. This was the first 1953 Corvette built that was displayed in the luxurious Waldorf Astoria Hotel in New York City at the 1953 Motorama show. This Corvette is currently owned by Kerbeck Chevrolet of Atlantic City, New Jersey, the largest Corvette Dealer in the world. Special thanks

“MISS KENTUCKY USA” GIVES HER SUPPORT TO THE CRIMEFIGHTER PROJECT

Lori Mitchell, the reigning “Miss Kentucky USA” (pictured below) is joining the CrimeFighter Team to help guide our kids down the right path to a healthy life. She will share her positive message about the hazard of drugs

and violence
aren County kids
ber DARE Lori, a former ate, knows first program works and how much it’s needed. Lori and the “CrimeFighter Corvette” make a striking combination as they both send a strong message to our kids on the hazards of drugs and violence. Lori is attending Western Kentucky University and can also be seen on the WBKO-TV 13 News at 10

ards of drugs
with our War-at the Decem-graduations.
DARE gradu-
hand how the

NATIONAL HONOR FOR THE “CRIMEFIGHTER “

For the second time in it’s short career the “Crimefighter Corvette” was recognized for it’s drug prevention efforts by the highest ranking official in our country, the President of the United States, Mr. Bush. The Presi-Bush believe in ing put forth by ment officials
to reduce drug
try. Along with gratulatory letter

George W.
dent and Mrs.
the efforts be-
law enforce-
in an attempt
use in our coun-
a con-
to the children who have completed our programs, they sent a personally autographed photo (shown above). The “Crimefighter“ Team works really hard in the area of drug and violence prevention in an attempt to direct our kids toward a productive lifestyle. It is really great to be recognized for those efforts especially by the President and First Lady. Special thanks to Congressman Ron Lewis and his staff for

‘CRIMEFIGHTER CORVETTE ‘ DAZZELS TEENS

The “CrimeFighter Corvette” works its magic in many ways and in all kinds of venues inside and outside of the Captain Joe
group of teen-
shown below
with the fea-

classroom.
has this a g e r s spellbound
tures of the “CrimeFighter”. Needless to say Capt. Joe has a way of getting around to the drug and violence issues in an effort to reinforce the message of staying away from the hazards of drugs and violence. He says “I talk to them about their dreams for the future, maybe it’s getting a cool Corvette like ours or just getting a good job so they can have a great life. I try to convince them to be a leader and not a follower. A lot of the followers get into trouble because they want to one of the crew and they do what everyone else does. They think that is cool. I really don’t change their mind about drugs, I just make them stop and think about life and what